
WHAT SHOULD YOU DO NEXT?

LOW RISK

ACTIONS

- Check temperature twice a day
- Watch out for symptoms
- If symptoms develop, immediately inform HR and self-isolate

WORK RESTRICTIONS

- If ASYMPTOMATIC, may report to work

MEDIUM/HIGH RISK

ACTIONS

- Immediately self-isolate
- Watch out for symptoms
- If symptoms develop, inform HR

WORK RESTRICTIONS

- DO NOT report to work for 14 days after last exposure

Reference: CDC Interim guidelines for risk assessment and public health management of healthcare personnel with potential exposure in a healthcare setting to patients with COVID-19